Message from The Director

Dear CCS Families,

Welcome to Term 2. As we start Term 2, we reflect on our foundational criteria for success at CCS. Our definition of a successful pupil goes well beyond academic success. The question I pose to you is as follows: When you met with your son/daughter's teacher(s), did you ask:

- Is my son/daughter willing to develop his or her talent and skills within a team-working environment?
- Is my son/daughter tolerant and respectful of all cultures and races?
- Does my son/daughter exhibit social and personal values including responsibility, initiative, integrity, fairness, flexibility and generosity?
- Does my son/daughter show a strong sense of enquiry and initiative?
- Does my son/daughter understand the importance and effects of making good personal choices?
- Does my son/daughter actively engage in learning?
- Does my son/daughter contribute to the school?

Yes, academic excellence is important. However, what is more important is being a well rounded citizen who is an engaged and caring member of the school and community. For my next Director's Coffee Morning, Friday November 13, I invite you to submit to me topics/issues that you would like us to discuss.

Warmest regards,
Ms Jeanie Forde

From the Primary School Desk

Welcome back to Term 2. I hope you all had a good holiday.

The budding journalists of Reception G.

I am writing this only two days into the new term and have already been "interviewed" by the pupils of Reception G. I was being asked questions as part of their study of "People who help us". In the next few days I am also being interviewed by the other Reception class and the Pre-school pupils. I was asked pertinent questions like "What do you do in the afternoon?" and "What is the first thing you do when you come to school?" and had my photograph taken by young James, not yet 5 years old, but already comfortable using a digital camera! The rest of the pupils in this class have had their turn taking photographs of different members of our school community who help them, from the house-keeping staff, gardeners, and maintenance to Jenny in the kitchen. It is a valuable exercise for us all to remember the huge team, over and above the teaching staff, that keeps the CCS machine running smoothly.

This week all our pupils are practising for our annual swimming carnivals which will take place next week. Please take the time, if you can, to cheer on your children in these fun events.

Please note that there will be no Primary School assembly this week. The children will be taking part in Book Buddies instead.

The Dream

Busy Term 1 ended with the rare treat of being able to appreciate professional live theatre when Secondary classes travelled to Ubud to see 'A Midsummer Night's Dream'. The play was a well crafted mix of Shakespeare's art in the comedy and chaos of love, and the discipline and beauty of Balinese dance, with Ubud providing the perfect enchanted forest!

Shakespeare's works have enduring contemporary significance, this time made all the more relevant when blended with the magic of what is around us in Bali. The international theatre company inspired its audience by choosing to showcase the acting talents of young people from schools here, and for us it was the perfect opportunity to continue to support and provide opportunities for the life long learning of our pupils, that goes beyond the academic classroom.

Warm greetings from Kasih Ibu Hospital.

You may know already that one of our matrons is at Canggu Community School (CCS), just to make sure that anyone who might need medical attention will be taken care of professionally.

Should further examinations or treatment be needed, our international division is ready with the best range of medical equipment and specialist doctors compared to any other international hospital or clinic in Bali. All international division staff, nurses and doctors, speak fluent English to ensure good communication.

So, all patients can definitely be assured that Kasih Ibu Hospital is a safe and comfortable hospital to go to.

Guess Who??!

Each week, the library committee with the help of parent volunteers, is creating a poster with a photo of an interesting person. The children have had a lot of fun with this! The person might be an artist, author, scientist - anyone of note. The idea is to introduce the children to a person that has been influential – from Mozart to Ghandi. By doing it in a question format, with boxes supplied for the children to drop in their guesses, we hope to engage them and pique their curiosity. The poster is placed in the reception area where the children will easily see it each day. New clues are posted daily – ie, quotes from the person, a birth date, notable achievements, illustrations etc. Our previous two "Guess Who's?" were Roald Dahl and Shel Silverstein. Below is the photo of a remarkable woman who is our featured Guess Who? this week. If you don't know who this is, ask your child how he or she might find out, given the clues provided. Aside from introducing them to a notable person, we want to give them a chance to practise their skills for research. Happy Guessing!

The Library Committee

Clues:

- The famous scientist was born in Russia on November 7, 1867.
- She was the first female professor at the University of Paris.
- She was the first person to receive two Nobel Prizes.

From Admissions Desk

We extend a warm welcome to Isabella and Tim in Reception C who have joined CCS this week.

BSSA Soccer Semi-Finals

Wednesday, 7 October

9-10 Boys	CCS def DYAT	4–0
9-10 Girls	BIS 1 def CCS	4–3
11-12 Boys	DYAT drew with CCS (DYAT win on a penalty shoot)	3–3
11-12 Girls A	CCS def BIS	2–1
11-12 Girls B	DYAT def CCS	6–0

BSSA Soccer Reports

9-10 Girls

The most difficult game yet was about to begin and the girls were missing three of their players due to illness. Thanks to Benthe in 6C, who volunteered to play, the game was able to go ahead. Despite having no substitutes, the CCS girls battled hard throughout the game and team spirit remained high. It was a close match reflected by the 4 - 3 final score to BIS. Well done girls, you tried your best.

Mr Turner

9-10 Boys

Usually the favourites in this competition, Dyatmika fell to earth on Wednesday at the hands of a rampant CCS boys team. The boys played like their life depended on it (a finals berth did at least). With the help of Arjuna in goal and Leo as a solo defender, we played strongly, passed well and took many shots on goal. As the second half went on, Dyatmika created many good chances but were denied by Arjuna's brave goalkeeping. On the other hand, we took the chances we created and scored four excellent goals. The win secures our birth in the BSSA finals for the second year in a row. The as yet unknown opposition have reason to shake in their boots as our boys are in no mood for losing, let alone giving an inch!
